

Community Conversations & Collective Action:
Understanding Systemic Racism & Promoting Social Justice

*Using Education, Empirical Evidence, Student Experience and Activism to engage in dialogue that advances our community's understanding of systemic racism and call community members to move beyond conversations and towards action that promotes social justice!

Understanding Systemic Racism: The Anatomy of What We Face Today

Tuesday, Sept. 29th, 2:30-4:20pm

Dr. Donnetrice Allison

Mr. Stephen Davis

The series will begin with foundational education about systemic racism coupled with an exploration of research centered on the inequities faced by African American males in the education system.

Understanding Systemic Racism: Signs & Symptoms of Racism

Thursday, Oct. 15th, 12:30-2:20pm

Dr. Zori Kalibatseva

Dr. Ana Rodriguez

This session will explore the psychological impact of systemic racism, and will feature a study, which brings to light the racial and cultural experiences of first generation Latinx students.

Promoting Social Justice: Dismantling Systems of Oppression

Monday, Nov. 2nd, 3:35-5:25pm

Dr. GorDan Reeves

Dr. Terri Carr

Marked an intentional shift to a focus on social justice, this session will highlight ways in which we can bridge equity gaps in the areas of unemployment and the natural sciences.

Promoting Social Justice: Changing Tomorrow TODAY

Wednesday, Nov. 18th, 2:10-3:25pm

Dr. Kameika Murphy

Dr. Nordia Johnson

The series will end with a discussion of the role of history in promoting social justice along with a call to examine the responsibility of the institution to change the landscape of higher education using campus climate.

All sessions will include a narrative component highlighting the experiences of current Stockton students, and will end with a call to action intended to advance the promotion of social justice.

Virtual links for each session can be found at: stockton.edu/academic-achievement

This event is hosted by the Office of Academic Achievement Programs, with key partners and speakers from the following areas:

The Africana Studies Program
The Office of Residential Life
The Psychology Program
The Office of Student Transition Programs
The Office of Career Education and Development
The Office of the Dean of Students
The Chemistry Program
The Historical Studies Program

Special thanks to the Social Justice Interns, housed in the Office of Academic Achievement Programs:

Danielle Combs
Alize Thompson