Galloway Township, NJ- The Sara and Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center at The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey and the Milton and Betty Katz Jewish Community Center (JCC) are sponsoring a lecture on Monday, Dec. 8 at 7:00 p.m. The event will take place at the Milton and Betty Katz JCC located at 501 North Jerome Avenue, Margate, NJ.

The lecture is free and open to the public. No tickets are required and seating is on a first-come, first-served basis. New Jersey educators can earn 1.5 Professional Development Hours.

The lecture, titled "The Contributions of Holocaust Survivors to American Life," will be presented by Dr. Michael Berenbaum, Project Director of the creation of the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum. Dr. Berenbaum was the Ida E. King Distinguished Visiting Professor at Stockton College, 1999-2000. He is now Professor of Theology at the University of Judaism and the Executive Editor of the Encyclopaedia Judaica, second edition.

The focus of the lecture will be the accomplishments of Holocaust survivors in the United States. He will discuss the legacy of Holocaust survivors and how they lived in the aftermath of World War II. Michael Berenbaum recently said: "By the turn of the 21st century Holocaust survivors could look back upon their collective life with a sense of significant—dare one say monumental—achievement."
