

New Board Members Join Stockton Foundation

For Immediate Release

Monday, February 22, 2016

Contact: Maryjane Briant
 News and Media Relations Director
 Galloway Township, NJ 08205
 Maryjane.Briant@stockton.edu
 (609) 652-4593
 www.stockton.edu/media

Galloway, NJ - Two alumni of Stockton University joined the board of the Stockton University Foundation this month, connecting with four other recent additions to the board.

David R. Hughes '86, the Chief Financial Officer of Shore Medical Center, Somers Point N.J., and Michael L. Albrecht '99, Managing Director of Ridgewood Private Equity Partners, Englewood Cliffs, N.J., each stated that they were glad to be able to reconnect with their alma mater and to serve.

Hughes, a resident of Somers Point, N.J., holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from Stockton. Among other community activities, he serves a board member of St. Joseph's Regional School in Somers Point and for the "Brayces" Smile for a Lifetime Foundation Atlantic and Cape May Counties.

He serves on the boards of American Media, Inc. (AMI) and iPayment, Inc., and on the board of the Rivers Casino in Pittsburgh, Pa. as finance and audit committee chairman.

Hughes was a former Chief Financial Officer of Trump Entertainment Resorts and formerly served as a member of the boards of the Greater Atlantic City Chamber of Commerce, Somers Point Economic Development Committee and the Somers Point Business Association.

Albrecht, an investment management professional with over 15 years of experience, formerly worked at Allstate Investments as acting group head of Global Infrastructure & Real Assets. Before joining Allstate, Albrecht served as senior acquisitions officer in JPMorgan Asset Management's Global Infrastructure Investments Private Equity Fund.

Albrecht holds an MBA from Cornell University and a Bachelor of Business Administration from Stockton.

The foundation, which raises funds to support university operations and student scholarships, also recently has welcomed four other board members:

-more-

-continued from page 1-

Camille E. Sailer, Esq. is an attorney-consultant specializing in global trade, business development and educational programs. She resides in Upper Township, N.J.

Sailer serves as the president of the European American Chamber of Commerce in New Jersey and is the past chairperson of the Eastern Trade Council, representing international trade and educational offices from Maine to Maryland, collectively the fifth largest economy in the world. From 2009-2011, Sailer was the director of International Trade for New Jersey. Sailer also is a retired senior U.S. diplomat having served in embassies around the world advising American companies on global business and investment issues and negotiating trade policy agreements.

She is a magna cum laude graduate of Lafayette College and received her law degree from Villanova University. She also attended the University of Madrid where she received a degree in Spanish studies. She is fluent in Spanish, French, Dutch, Korean and German.

Charles C. Weeks, Jr., is a certified financial planner and founder and president of Barrister Wealth Management, LLC.

Weeks, a resident of Margate, N.J., received his Bachelor of Science degree from LaSalle University in Finance with a minor in Accounting, and his Juris Doctorate from Villanova University School of Law.

He spearheaded the effort to create the undergraduate Financial Planning Concentration and the Continuing Studies Certificate in Financial Planning at Stockton, where he also serves as an assistant professor of Finance and an instructor for the certificate program.

Donna Albano, a resident of Somers Point, N.J., is an associate professor in the Hospitality & Tourism Management Studies (HTMS) Program at Stockton's School of Business. Her responsibilities include teaching, research and service to the university and community. She serves on Stockton's scholarship committee, national search committees, AACSB Student Standards Committee, the Advising Council and the Essential Learning Outcome Committee.

She served as the director of the HTMS program from 2000-2014 and coordinator of Academic Programs for the Lloyd D. Levenson Institute of Gaming, Hospitality & Tourism.

Albano is a member of several education and hospitality industry associations including the International Council of Hotel, Restaurant and Institutional Educators. She is also an active member of the Greater Atlantic City Concierge Association/Scholarship Committee, Somers Point Business Association Executive Committee, Greater Atlantic City Chamber of Commerce, Philadelphia Hotel Association and other boards and associations.

Albano earned her undergraduate degree from Widener University in Hospitality Management and her Masters and Ed.D. from Rowan University in Glassboro, N.J.

Dr. Edward A. Wroblewski is a cardiologist practicing in Hammonton and Egg Harbor Township, N.J. He earned a Bachelor's of Science degree as an undergrad from LaSalle College. He graduated from Thomas Jefferson University in 1968 with a medical degree.

Much of his professional career has been at William B. Kessler Memorial Hospital, where Dr. Wroblewski has held many positions. He served as director of Intensive Care Unit and Cardiology Department from 1974-1990; president of Medical Staff for three years; and served on the Board of Directors. He is presently a staff cardiologist at AtlantiCare, as well as Virtua Hospital.

#