Galloway Township, NJ- The 33rd Annual Stockton College Scholarship Benefit Gala, hosted by the Stockton College Foundation, will be held at Revel in Atlantic City on Saturday, April 27, 2013.

Stockton President Herman J. Saatkamp said "At last year's gala, community members, alumni and supporters made a huge difference, helping the Foundation to develop scholarships for deserving students and supporting our Comprehensive Campaign. This year we need to do even more for our students."

Tickets are $225 per person. The evening's events include a cocktail reception, silent auction and dinner followed by entertainment and dancing.

The gala's honorary chair is Kevin DeSanctis, chief executive officer at Revel. Gala co-chairs this year are the Honorable John Schultz and Gary Hill, co-founders of the Schultz Hill Foundation, which is a nonprofit organization supporting the arts, history and education in southern New Jersey. Auction chair is Lisa Johnson, president of Lisa Johnson Communications, Inc.

"This event has become the 'see and be seen' event of the year. We have been coming to the Stockton gala for years and are thrilled to be chairing the scholarship fundraiser this year," said Gary Hill.

Sponsors to date for the event include IBEW Local 351, The Press of Atlantic City, Revel Entertainment, Avalon Carpet, Tile and Flooring, Horizon Eye Care, Chartwells, Follett Higher Education Group, NBC40, Stockton Seaview Hotel & Golf Club, Dr. Jo Frances Stow, Atlantic County Utilities Authority (ACUA), Cape Resorts Group, Ciccone, Gotthold & Koseff CPAs, Tony and Fran Coppola, Just Four Wheels, H.
