Galloway Twp., NJ- Stockton College will host two different “Old School” basketball clinics at the Stockton Sports Center on Saturday, April 7.

“These clinics focus on fundamentals, which have become a lost art with many of today’s players,” said Stockton Assistant Men’s Coach Scott Bittner. “That’s why we call our clinics ‘Old School’. We are teaching the game the way it used to be taught.”

The clinics will be for grades three through eight 10 a.m. until 11:30 a.m., and for grades nine through twelve from 11:45 a.m. until 1:15 p.m. Cost is $15 per player.

For more information, contact Bittner at (609) 374-6993.
