HISTORY LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT

Option 1:

The student completes the study of a language, other than English, through the Intermediate II level with a grade of C or better. This usually requires 16 credits in Language and Culture Studies (two Beginning LANG courses and two Intermediate LANG courses). Students who enter the program with a strong background in a foreign language may be able to place out of one or both of the Beginning classes.

Option 2:

The student participates in an approved study abroad program in a non-English speaking country. Programs may be for at least one semester (fall or spring) or at least six weeks during the summer. Study abroad programs may be used to fulfill part or all of the language requirement. Transfer credit varies.

Option 3:

The student tests out of the History Language requirement by achieving a score of "Intermediate Mid" on the ACTFL Reading Proficiency exam. For information on testing, consult <https://www.languagetesting.com>. Students who choose this option may be required to take additional cognate courses to meet Stockton's credit requirement for graduation.

GENERAL STUDIES REQUIREMENT: 32 credits

25 % of all the courses a student takes at Stockton must be General Studies courses.

For all first-year students and transfer students with fewer than 64 credits (B.A. degree), the following courses are required.

General Arts and Humanities (GAH)— 8 credits

General Interdisciplinary (GEN) — 4 credits

General Integration and Synthesis (GIS)* — 4 credits

General Natural Science and Mathematics (GNM) — 8 credits

General Social Science (GSS) — 8 credits

Must be taken in junior or senior year

No more than 16 credits in any "G" category may be applied toward the B.A. degree.
