Other Business and Comments from the Board	No other business and comments from the Board.
Comments from the Public	Lori Vermeulen, Susan Davenport, Pedro Santana, Michael Angulo, Brian Kowalski, and Lisa Honaker announced new faculty and administrative personnel appointments and other changes in their areas. Dr. Santana also asked for a moment of pause for the individuals in Puerto Rico and Mexico who experienced a massive earthquake today. Trish Collins reminded the group of the upcoming Council of Black Faculty and Staff Annual Dinner on 11/10 and the 10/8 SCOSA Walk to End Alzheimer's. Beverly Vaughn reminded the audience of the Messiah on 12/10 at the Borgata, and Phil Ellmore mentioned the Foundation Golf Tournament the following week. President Kesselman mentioned that Mel Gregory, Nick Mansor and Joe Marchetti will retire at the end of the calendar year. He also recognized the work of Steven Radwanski, Director of Residential Life, and all of the Housing staff for their work. Prof. Michael McGarvey commented on what appeared to be few permanent faculty hires and many 13-D hires. The Provost and Dean Peter Straub explained that the permanent hires were on the July board resolution and the late hires were due to the large number of new students; however, searches are currently in progress for many permanent positions. Trustee Deininger invited the group to a Meet and Greet Reception in the Event Room at the close of the meeting.
Next Regularly Scheduled Meeting	The next regularly scheduled meeting will be held on Wednesday, December 6, 2017 at 4:30 p.m. in the Board of Trustees Room, Campus Center.
Adjournment	Upon a motion duly made by Trustee Deininger and seconded by Trustee Ciccone, the Board voted to adjourn the meeting at 5:03 p.m.

For the Board,
Susan Davenport, Executive Vice President,
Chief of Staff and Assistant Secretary to the Board

Approved by the Board of Trustees on December 6, 2017.

RESOLUTION

TO OFFER A MASTERS PROGRAM IN COUNSELING

WHEREAS, the University mission statement affirms a goal to “help our students develop the capacity for continuous learning and the ability to adapt to changing circumstances in a multicultural and interdependent world,” and a commitment to “actively seek to take advantage of and to improve the unique physical and human environment in which the University is located”; and

WHEREAS, the southern New Jersey region has significant health and wellness challenges that impact the quality of life of residents across the lifespan and are central to the fields of study in the School of Social and Behavioral Sciences where students “study different aspects of human behavior and relationships at individual, societal, and cultural levels and examine human dynamics to better understand each other and how we interact with our families, communities, and environments”; and

WHEREAS, the Masters in Counseling is now the recommended degree for entry-level practice for licensed professional counselors; and

WHEREAS, the shared governance bodies of the University have approved of a faculty-proposed Masters in Counseling program as an embodiment of these affirmations; and

WHEREAS, such a program responds to the demonstrated market demands of southern New Jersey; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Board of Trustees approves and authorizes the administration to notify the New Jersey higher education community of our intent to offer the Masters of Counseling and, subsequent to review consistent with the Higher Education Restructuring Act, take all necessary steps to implement the program.

Student Related Services

YMCA Camp Ockanickon, Inc. (518026)

FY18: $42,000

This bid waiver request is for the registration fees for the Stockton Orientation Retreat, scheduled for August 28 to August 30, 2018. The registration fee includes lodging, food, ropes courses, and other team building activities for approximately 300 new students, returning student leaders, faculty and staff. Other camps were contacted for quotes but were not able to accommodate the retreat for reasons such as space, religious preferences and distance. The other camps contacted were: Haluwasa, Hope, Mount Misery, Stony Acres and Lake Greeley. A non-refundable deposit is due in 2018. A prior one-year bid waiver for YMCA Camp Ockanickon, Inc., Bid Waiver 517020, was approved at the December 2016 meeting for $40,000. (Reference: N.J.S.A. 18A:64-56 (a) [17])

STOCKTON UNIVERSITY

POLICY

Policy Name: University Whistleblower Policy

Policy Administrator: Director of Human Resources
Authority: N.J.S.A. 34:19-1 et seq.
Effective Date: TDB
Index Cross-References: Policy I-55: Campus Conduct Code Policy
Policy File Number: I-126
Approved By: Upon Approval of the Board of Trustees

PURPOSE: The general purpose of this policy is to protect any Stockton University employee, or other Stockton community member, who makes a good faith disclosure of suspected wrongful conduct. The University requires its directors, officers, employees, student workers, interns, and volunteers, as well as all persons who provide the University with contracted services, to observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the performance of their duties on the University's behalf. The University is committed to responsible administration and stewardship of University resources, and is aware of its responsibilities under the New Jersey Conscientious Employee Protection Act ("CEPA"), commonly known as the "Whistleblower Law." N.J.S.A. 34:19-1 et seq. CEPA prohibits employers from retaliating against employees who disclose, object to, or refuse to participate in actions that they reasonably believe are illegal, fraudulent, or in violation of public policy.

POLICY: In accordance with New Jersey's Whistleblower Law, the University prohibits the taking of any retaliatory action against any employee who reports, in good faith, conduct or actions that are illegal, fraudulent, or in violation of public policy. This Policy in conjunction with its related administrative procedure, describes the complaint resolution process that is available to employees who believe they were subjected to retaliation for making a Protected Disclosure. Employees must file their complaints within one year of the action believed to be retaliatory, and complaints may be made on a confidential, and if desired, anonymous basis.

This Policy is not for reporting violations of the University's applicable human resources policies, problems with colleagues, coworkers, or supervisors, or for reporting issues related to alleged employment discrimination or any form of unlawful harassment, all of which should be handled in accordance with the University's Personnel and Student Conduct Policies. The policies found in the most current Collective Bargaining Agreements, and the Code of Conduct are designed to address individual grievances and personal complaints.
