Policy 1-9 - Board of Trustees By-Laws

Summary of Recommended Changes

The Board of Trustees By-Laws were reviewed and updated to remove references to College and fix typos and grammatical errors. The following substantive changes are also recommended:

1) Addition of Section 1 – Establishment

This addition quotes the New Jersey Statute that gives universities the right to establish a board of trustees.

“The Board of Trustees is established pursuant to Title 18A of the New Jersey Statutes Annotated (NJSA) which states, in part, that "the Legislature hereby finds that it is in the best interest of the State that the state colleges shall be and continue to be given a high degree of self-government and that the government and conduct of the colleges shall be free of partisanship. The Legislature finds further that a decentralization of authority and decision-making to the boards of trustees and administrators of the state colleges in the areas of personnel, budget execution, purchasing and contracting will enhance the idea of self-government."

2) Changes to the definition of a quorum

In section 2 – membership, “the President of the University, who shall serve as a member of the Board, without vote; however, can be counted for the purposes of determining a quorum.”

In section 6 – quorum, “Seats that have been vacated by death or resignation shall not be counted for the purpose of determining a quorum. Each trustee shall be entitled to one vote.”

3) Addition of Trustee Emeritus designation

“After leaving Board membership, a trustee member who has served a full six-year term and who has provided outstanding service shall be eligible for nomination as a Trustee Emeritus. Election to Trustee Emeritus status shall be by majority vote of the Board, upon nomination by the Executive Committee. A Trustee Emeritus shall serve for a term of two years and may be re-elected without limit. While the position is non-voting with regard to official actions of the Board, a Trustee Emeritus may be invited to participate in all Board meetings and functions, will be eligible to be appointed by the Chair to serve on any of the Board’s advisory special committees, and may be called upon to assist the Board and the President in those matters where the individual’s interest, experience and expertise will best serve the University. The number of such positions is discretionary with the Board. However, the honor will be reserved for individuals with a record of distinguished service.”

4) Change in nominating committee membership

Language was added to include the practice of an ex-officio member on the Executive Committee.

“There shall be an Executive Committee consisting of the Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, Secretary, an ex-officio member, and the President of the University; the ex-officio member and the President shall serve without a vote. The Executive Committee shall act on behalf of the corporate body between meetings of the Board of Trustees subject to approval of its actions by the Board of Trustees at a subsequent meeting.”

The Legislature finds further that a decentralization of authority and decision-making to the boards of trustees and administrators of the state colleges in the areas of personnel, budget execution, purchasing and contracting will enhance the idea of self-government."
Section 2  Membership

The Board of Trustees shall consist of between seven (7) and up to fifteen (15) members appointed, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:64-3 by the Governor of the State of New Jersey with the advice and consent of the New Jersey Senate, two (2) student trustees elected by the student body (one voting student trustee and a student trustee alternate), and the President of the University, who shall serve as a member of the Board, without vote, however, can be counted for the purposes of determining a quorum. At such time as the then Board of Trustees deems it necessary or desirable, the number of members may be increased by a majority vote of the members of the Board of Trustees present and voting at two successive regularly scheduled meetings of the Board. Under no circumstance shall the number of members, with a right to vote, exceed fifteen (15). All members of the Board shall serve without compensation but shall be entitled to reimbursement for all reasonable and necessary expenses.

A Trustee Emeritus shall serve for a term of two years and may be re-elected without limit. While the position is non-voting with regard to official actions of the Board, a Trustee Emeritus may be invited to participate in all Board meetings and functions, will be eligible to be appointed by the Chair to serve on any of the Board’s advisory special committees, and may be called upon to assist the Board and the President in matters where the individual’s interest, experience and expertise will best serve the University. The number of such positions is discretionary with the Board. However, the honor will be reserved for individuals with a record of distinguished service.

Section 4  Duties and Powers

In the absence of a quorum, the Trustees present at any meeting may receive reports and adjourn the meeting until such time as a quorum shall be present.

Section 7  Attendance

Trustees are expected to attend all meetings of the Board. No Trustee may be absent from three consecutive public meetings without written authorization from the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees; nor may a Trustee be absent from more than half the public Board meetings in any twelve-month period counted from the annual reorganization meeting. Absences in violation of either or both of these provisions will constitute sufficient cause to seek removal of the Trustee in accordance with the provisions of New Jersey Statutes 18A:64-3.

All questions coming before the Board of Trustees shall be decided by a majority of those present and voting at the meeting except where required otherwise by law or Robert's Rules of Order. Voting shall be by roll call unless otherwise directed by the Chair.

President Kesselman provided some background information and changes relevant to the Board of Trustee By-Laws and Internal Audit Policy.

Personnel Actions

Resolutions

Chairperson Deininger announced that the Board reviewed the Personnel Actions Resolution, which was posted on the Board’s website for review.

Upon a motion duly made by Trustee Jacobson and seconded by Trustee Ciccone, the Board voted to adopt the resolution.

Other Business

Chairperson Deininger commented Stockton students sent a thoughtful petition to the President and Board of Trustees on February 14, 2017. President Kesselman and the Cabinet reviewed their concerns and came up with a solution that protects our students, within the confines of the law. The Board of Trustees is very supportive of the agreed upon language:

“Consistent with New Jersey Senate concurrent resolution number 134 passed February 15, 2017, the University is “Stockton Safe,” providing a safe zone for all students, faculty, and staff. The University, to the fullest extent permitted by law, protects the identity and information of all members of our community, regardless of immigration status. Pursuant to Federal and New Jersey privacy laws, including the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), Stockton protects the identity of all members of our community including any at-risk groups.”

President Kesselman stated the students presented to him and the Board of Trustees, a resolution, which included a petition with several items for action. He and the Cabinet reviewed the items and then met with the students to go over those items. The Board endorsed today the matters agreed upon at that meeting.

He acknowledged and commended the work of our students who were intricately involved in this process, and the student leaders, who represented their constituencies. He also commended the student trustees on how well they represented the Trustees at this meeting. He commented on how he wished others could have witnessed the sessions because it demonstrated how much good can happen when groups get together, sit down at a table, negotiate, and both sides are willing to give and learn from each other. President Kesselman thanked the student groups, student trustees, Board of Trustees, and Student Senate for their involvement in bringing this to the attention of the institution.

Student Trustee Moreno commented on the fear of undocumented individuals within the community, and that of students as well. He remarked how proud he was of Stockton and his fellow students who made this happen; and remarked of how this efforts could not have been possible without the grass roots movement that occurred. He acknowledged that one group was missing from those negotiations, undocumented students. He also noted the sentiments of fellow students, who have said “What we did mattered – what we did matters to undocumented students.” Trustee Moreno thanked President Kesselman, Board of Trustees, and the students.

Comments from the Board

No comments were offered from the Board of Trustees.
Comments from the Public

Provost Vermeulen welcomed Dr. John E. Gray, who joined Stockton in January 2017 as Assistant Dean of Education.

Vice President Ingram welcomed James Rottler as the new Director of Stockton Affiliated Services, Inc. (SASI) to the division of Administration and Finance.

Dean Iacovelli, on behalf of Dr. Thomasa Gonzalez, Vice President for Student Affairs (absent), welcomed Jennifer Houser and Kelly Renn to Stockton and Free-to-Be. He acknowledged the promotions of Steven Radwanski, Director of Residential Life, and Brian Pluchino, Assistant Director of Residential Life Facilities and Student Retention.

Dr. Anne Pomeroy, President of Stockton Federation of Teachers (SFT) and Professor of Philosophy, asked the members of the Stockton Federation of Teachers to stand. Dr. Pomeroy read a statement from the Stockton Federation of Teachers and the Stockton University Faculty Senate:

> “We are the Stockton Federation of Teachers - we are the ones who directly carry out the mission of the University, we are the ones who forge bonds with students, we are the ones who transform lives, we are the ones who create and sustain the reputation of the University, we are the ones students remember, how many of you went to Stockton? Do you remember the name of the Director of Admissions? Do you remember the name of your best teacher? Yes ... WE ARE STOCKTON.

And we have been without a contract since 2015 - almost 2 years now, but that is hardly the whole story- because, due to our pay freeze in 2011 and then the VERY steep rise in the legislated costs transferred to us for medical benefits, we have been without any appreciable increases in our take home pay for 6 years now. Before that time, we had miniscule cost of living increases and, lest we forget, a furlough. Property taxes rise, the cost of living rises and we stay stagnant. There is just so much that anyone can take. We have reached our limit – we cannot take any more. We will not take any more.

Let me quote from a note I got from an untenured faculty member: "A new faculty member may not fully understand just what a contract freeze "really" means, but it hits you soon enough when the annual review letter giving you a 2-year contract reappointment shows a salary that has not moved one dime. Mind you - nothing else is stagnant - family is growing, kids needs are increasing but we are stuck with the same salary ... " This same individual relates hallway conversations among new faculty about taking on restaurant or Lyft jobs to make ends meet.

I hear of such conversations and I am sickened. Stockton boasts on its website about the high percentage of the faculty who hold terminal degrees (what is it - like 96 - 97%) -- it takes upwards of 10 - 12 years (sometimes longer) of higher education to earn a Ph.D. and we have them from Rutgers and Princeton, Harvard and U Penn, Villanova and Fordham, NYU, Michigan State, U Cal Berkeley ... best schools in the country - look at our CVs and you should be impressed. With the Ph.D. a faculty member has, dare I say, more schooling than most medical doctors, more than lawyers, more than our governor, perhaps even, with all due respect, more than some of the members of the Board. And this is how we are treated. It is shameful. Some search committees have reported that candidates are asking about the pay and the contract - can you imagine what those conversations are like? What are we supposed to say ... "well, we're not sure ... " Will you be valued here? "not so sure" Will you be valued in the State of New Jersey? Not so sure ... well...probably not.
For adjunct faculty it is, of course, far worse. Adjunct faculty live in a constant state of insecurity: job insecurity, income insecurity, health insecurity, food insecurity, life insecurity ... and due to their very low pay and at-will status, they are rendered for the most part, powerless. This freeze hits them hardest. The tale we tell - that this is just desired flexible work is the ugliest of myths and simply does not apply to the vast majority of adjuncts. They are the day-laborers of Academe –its dirty little secret.

Professional Staff salaries are frozen as well and that cost of living just keeps going up. But there is a larger picture as well and the larger picture may be more important. We are living in very troubling times. Right now, what work could possibly be more important than the work of higher education: what could be more important than teaching students about the difference between truth, pseudo-truths, and lies; what could be more important than teaching students how to research and find facts; what work could be more important than helping students develop a keen critical sensibility- to think through issues carefully and thoroughly; what work could be more important than modelling intellectual courage?

Yet higher education and PUBLIC higher education in particular is under attack in this country and the unions that allow faculty to be properly compensated and supported in this work that is SO important right now are under attack. We should not be surprised. It is surely no accident that NOW, right now faculty are being demoralized, undermined, propagandized, Ohio is considering a bill that would require teachers to declare their political affiliations, Koch brothers are buying their way into universities and controlling hiring practices.

The States behavior in this regard mirrors disturbing behavior across the Nation. So the question is this - Where do you stand? When you look back on this time, when the faculty and PS at the public institution you oversee were under attack where will you have stood? Will you have fought for those who carry out the primary mission of the University or not? Will you have resisted the undermining of intellectual freedom or not? Is it just too much trouble? Do you just not want to be involved? But realize this - To do nothing is to tacitly sanction the existing state of affairs --and we know that.

Therefore, we call on you to support public higher education and those who deliver that education. We need a fair contract. We need the College and University Presidents to tell OER we need a fair contract. We need the Board of Trustees to tell the Governor's office, we need a fair contract. We need you to tell them that this situation is untenable. Because one way or the other, it will surely become untenable. What you see before you is our announcement of our strength and solidarity. We are now joined in this struggle and we will prevail because we stand on the side of what is right. We are Stockton. (I won't do the mic drop) Thank you for your time and attention. This truly, truly matters now.”

President Kesselman recognized from the audience, Dr. Tim Haresign, head of the AFT for the state of New Jersey, and thanked him for coming. He also offered additional comments to the community, as president, assuring his support in the fight to get a fair contract.

President Kesselman noted the PBA and CWA also do not have contracts, although the IFPTE has settled. He further noted the institutional support for faculty and staff during this difficult time. Since July 2015, the institution granted 32 faculty promotions and range adjustments; for AFT staff, 18 structural reclassifications; for faculty, 25 sabbaticals for 31 semesters; and in 2017-18, another 9 sabbaticals for 10 semesters. Since July 2015, the institution hired 60 faculty members (not all new lines) at an average salary of over $68,000; and in April 2016, extended the FRIP for another 5 years, the maximum allowed. President Kesselman reaffirmed Stockton’s support of its faculty and staff, and its commitment to ensure a signed contract.
He also stressed the urgency of getting everyone back at the table for continued negotiations, until all issues have been resolved. In closing, he expressed his pleasure in seeing the faculty, in their blue shirts, united for this cause.

Dr. Michael Frank, Professor of Psychology, stated on his own behalf, that something is terribly wrong with New Jersey’s support for higher education. Many years ago, Stockton received 85% of its operating budget from the state of New Jersey. At President Kesselman’s talk to Faculty Senate the previous day, he said Stockton receives about 10% now, to which Professor Frank believes “there’s something very, very wrong with that.” He called upon Dr. Kesselman and all of the other individual college presidents, to come to the bargaining table and enter into negotiations.

Dr. Michael McGarvey, Professor of Art and a delegate from Stockton Federation of Teachers, stated that he has been involved in many negotiations since 2007, and this is probably the worst one he has experienced. He also commented on the deterioration of the support of higher education in New Jersey; and remarked that public education is for educating people, who may not otherwise be able to afford an education that rivals some of the best private institution, which is the tradition here at Stockton. Dr. McGarvey asked President Kesselman if he supported all the proposals that have been put on the table by the state and the other institutions currently.

President Kesselman responded that he had not seen the other proposals, but would like to see them.

Dr. McGarvey indicated that other proposals, not economically related, have been mixed with economic package issues, which have become barriers to the negotiations. He respectfully asked President Kesselman and the Board members to find out what some of these things are so they can advocate for a fair contract now.

Dr. Tim Haresign commented that as the chief negotiator, he has been at all the negotiations and wanted to be clear on a few matters. He stated the AFT union was ready to negotiate before the contract ended in July 2015, with proposals. Negotiations were attempted but were difficult without economic proposals from Management. Regarding the misperception of the Union not coming to the bargaining table, the Union offered every Friday to come to the table last summer, but Management did not present an economic offer until the end of August 2016, 14 months after the contract ended. Negotiations have continued during the semester, and he did not want the perception that the Union is not coming to the table to persist. He was stunned that President Kesselman did not know the items presented in the proposals and offered to send them to him. Some items proposed by Management include reducing professional staff contracts from four years to three years, and tying payment of adjuncts for labs directly to student credit hours. He stated Management also rejected the Union’s proposal for paid bereavement leave, and offered no counter. Dr. Haresign suggested the college presidents and boards of trustees get involved with reviewing and mitigating those “school specific” items, which have become barriers to negotiations.

A Stockton student (unidentified) commented that he and other students of Stockton would support, back, and continue to stand with the faculty until they receive a contract.
Dr. Arleen Gonzalez, Associate Professor of Criminal Justice, commented that she has taught at Stockton for 30 years and wanted to support Dr. Pomeroy's statement about faculty, by “[putting] a face to the relationship between teachers and students.” She pointed out that both Trustee Moreno and Trustee Ejikeme were her former students; and she believed she contributed to them being here today. Dr. Gonzalez also mentioned Maryam Sarham, Student Senate President, who became a commissioner on the Atlantic County Commission on Women, because of the relationship between her and Dr. Gonzalez. In closing, she emphasized the impact of educators, not just in materials taught, but in the support that professors offer their students.

Chairperson Deininger thanked everyone for attending the meeting and for their well-articulated, moving comments. She reiterated the sentiments of Dr. Gonzalez, acknowledging Dr. Joseph Rubenstein, Professor of Anthropology, and her former professor, Dr. Frank Cerreto, Professor of Mathematics; and noted how Stockton professors influenced her life. Furthermore, she attributed the impact of all her professors to be the reason why she became a board member of Stockton University.
