

Hispanic Women's Resource Centers (HWRC)

HWRCs provide programs that facilitate professional development to increase the employability of Hispanic women. These agencies serve people identifying as women who are of Spanish or Latin American culture, with origins in Mexico, the Carribean Islands, South or Central America. Programs are designed to enhance the earnings and job prospects of Hispanic women and positively impact their earning potential. The Centers focus on helping Hispanic women to gain workplace skills, including but not limited to: English language classes, resume preparation, interviewing skills, and computer training.
