

1. (This one is really for a graduate student)

Director for ADHD Day Camp in Margate

Trip Camp is a day travel camp for boys ages 11-16 who are diagnosed with ADHD. Entering it's 6th year of operation, Trip Camp draws families from across the country so their sons can be part of this unique program.

The Camp Director position is a part-time position during the school year that can be done remotely, (approximately 1 hour per week until mid June when the hours increase slightly until the beginning of the camp season). During the 6.5-week camp season the hours would be approximately 9:00-5:00. Additionally, during the camp season there is parent communication that needs to happen through email.

The Director position provides a generous salary that far exceeds any Camp Director salary in South Jersey.

Job Requirements:

- The ideal candidate for this position will be a Teacher or Administrator with at least 3 years of experience.
- Special education experience is preferred but not required.
- Be within easy driving distance from Margate during the 6.5 week camp season.
- Experience dealing with an educated parent demographic
- Good classroom management experience.
- Good stamina as this is an active position that requires a lot of outdoor time.
- Strong communication and organizational skills
