

Fall Faculty Conference
Faculty Senate Minutes 9/1/21

1. Presentation: Faculty Support/Classroom Strategies & Management during COVID Times
Presenter: Dr. Kathleen Klein, Executive Director, Center for Teaching and Learning
2. Presentation: Conversations on Race and Racism Moving Forward
Presenter(s): Dr. Patricia Reid-Merritt & Dr. Michael Rodriguez
3. Presentation: Title IX Introduction
Presenters: Brittany Medio & Dr. Betsy Erbaugh
4. Discussion /Q & A
  - a. COVID Vaccine- Question raised regarding if a University Policy in existence regarding access, privacy, and sharing of medical records.
  - b. Antiracism - Question raised regarding how antiracism is addressed across disciplines and need for ongoing dialog
  - c. R1 & R2- 14 R1 and 21 R2 courses were approved for Fall 2021. Application for R1 & R2 courses for Spring 2022 will reopen in September. Teaching Race Summer Institute will be offered in 2022.
  - d. Face to Face Teaching – Question raised regarding the institution’s response about the return to face to face teaching in Fall 2021.
  - e. Question raised about developing a university policy that establishes criteria for students to carry 20 credits.
  - f. Question raised about establishing guidelines promoting safety in a pandemic.