

THE STOCKTON UNIVERSITY FOUNDATION
UNDERGRADUATE HELLENIC STUDIES SCHOLARSHIP

APPLICATION FOR UNDERGRADUATE HELLENIC STUDIES AWARD

Criteria to be considered are as follows:

1. Recipients will be full-time, undergraduate, matriculated students at Stockton (minimum 12 credits per semester).
2. Recipients will be in good academic standing at Stockton with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0.
3. Recipients will have a proven interest in Hellenic Studies.

Applications are available in the School of Arts and Humanities Office (K-150) or www.stockton.edu/ichs (bottom of page under Forms or Friends of Hellenic Studies, Scholarships). Applications should be placed in the mailbox of Professor Katherine Panagakos located in the ARHU Office (K-150). If you have any questions, please contact Professor Katherine Panagakos: katherine.panagakos@stockton.edu.

Accepting Applications beginning Friday, March 4, 2016. Scholarships will be awarded on a rolling basis.

In addition to completing this form, please submit (a) two letters of recommendation from your instructors; (b) a copy of your unofficial transcript, which can be obtained online from the Registration Tools box in the Student Services tab in goStockton or from the Office of Student Records (Campus Center, Suite 203, M-F 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM); (c) a typed essay approximately two hundred and fifty words (250) stating your proven interest in Hellenic Studies and your intended use if awarded a scholarship. Include any information you feel will help the Selection Committee make a decision concerning your qualifications as a recipient. Please note, as a recipient of a Hellenic Studies Scholarship you will be required to write an article detailing the outcome(s) of your project or program, to write up an article for The Hellenic Voice, and to speak at the Stockton Friends of Hellenic Studies Annual Scholarship Event in the fall.

Please type or print clearly all information.
