

Holocaust Survivors Featured at Yom HaShoah Remembrance Program April 5

For immediate release

March 31, 2021

Galloway, N.J. – The Sara and Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center at Stockton University will host its annual Yom HaShoah program via Zoom at 7 p.m. Monday, April 5.

The program, “Unto Every Person There Is A Name - Remembering the 6 million Jewish Victims of the Holocaust,” will feature Holocaust scholar and author Michael Berenbaum, who will interview four area Holocaust survivors.

- Maud Dahme of Flemington, who was a hidden child with her sister on a farm near Amersfoort, the Netherlands.
- Betty Grebenschikoff of Ventnor, who was an eyewitness to Kristallnacht in Berlin, Germany. She was able to flee with her family to Shanghai, China.
- Laura Oberlender of Atlantic City, who was a hidden child on a farm near Tuchi, which is now part of the Ukraine.
- Rosalie Simon, formerly of Margate, who survived Auschwitz-Birkenau with her sisters.
