DATE: Tuesday, July 19, 2016
TIME: 9:00 am – 2:00 pm (lunch is included)
PLACE: Sara and Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center
Stockton University – (2nd floor library) Use Parking Lots 1 - 6
PRESENTER: Shani Lourie, Yad Vashem International School
PDH: 5.0 Professional Development Hours for NJ Educators
COST: Free, including ECHOES & REFLECTIONS multi-media curriculum guide and DVD testimonies for classroom use.

This seminar is designed for educators who have not previously attended an Echoes and Reflections workshop. Echoes and Reflections is a multi-media curriculum, connecting lessons focusing on prejudice reduction, cultural diversity, character education, genocide, and discrimination. This curriculum encourages classroom discussions and knowledge relevant to contemporary issues of prejudice. The workshop, curriculum, and DVD testimonies are free.

PROGRAM GOALS:

- To provide the appropriate historical context for lessons about the Holocaust and other genocides by using a multi-media curriculum and resource materials.
- To explore lessons from Echoes and Reflections (for grades 4 – 12 and college) using Holocaust survivor testimony.
