Franz Schubert—Symphony No. 5

This rich program features Samuel Barber's masterpiece depicting American childhood, "Knoxville: Summer of 1915," set to text by American novelist James Agee. Ravel's exquisite "Tombeau de Couperin," portraying the same era, pays homage to friends lost in World War I. These two works act as the bookends of life. After intermission, romance is in the air with intoxicating love songs by Richard Strauss and Schubert's delicious Fifth Symphony.

For our patrons with special needs, the Stockton Performing Arts Center offers wheelchair accessible seating, large type programs, and listening assistive devices. Please identify any needs you may have when making a reservation.

The Stockton Performing Arts Center, the Jersey Shore's Center for the Arts, is located on the campus of The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey, on Jim Leeds Road in Pomona (Galloway Township). Just 12 miles west of Atlantic City, the Center is easily accessible from the Garden State Parkway and the Atlantic City Expressway.

This program is made possible in part by funds from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a partner agency of the National Endowment for the Arts and by funds from the National Endowment for the Arts.
