Galloway Township, NJ- The Sara and Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center at The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey will be presenting a free educator workshop, "Genocide in the 20th Century," on Tuesday, December 1, 2009 from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. in the Liviu Librescu classroom, located on the second floor of the library, on the College's Galloway Township campus.

The workshop is designed for middle and high school educators, and Professional Development Hours will be offered to New Jersey educators. Resource materials will be distributed and teaching strategies will be discussed. The topics to be presented include the following: the origins of genocide; genocides in the 20th and 21st centuries; genocide as a process; and genocide prevention.

The workshop's featured presenter will be Dr. Samuel Totten, Stockton's Ida E. King Distinguished Visiting Professor of Holocaust Studies.

For more information and to register for the workshop, please call 609-652-4699.
