

High School Students in Hammonton Invited to Kramer Hall Workshop, Musical at Eagle Theatre

Pre-Registration Required for March 27 'Miniversity' on Relieving Stress

For Immediate Release

Monday, March 17, 2014

Contact: Maryjane Briant
News and Media Relations Director
Galloway Township, NJ 08205
Maryjane.Briant@stockton.edu
(609) 652-4593

Galloway Township, NJ - High school students from Hammonton are invited to Kramer Hall's Miniversity event, "March Madness" to learn about relieving stress and to see the rock musical "Next to Normal" at the nearby Eagle Theatre on Thursday, March 27, 2014.

Luanne Anton, a health educator at The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey's Wellness Center, will discuss how to relieve stress and tension as the school year comes to an end. Anton's presentation will be held from 6:30 p.m. -7:30 p.m. in the Art Gallery of Kramer Hall, Stockton's instructional site at 30 Front St., Hammonton, NJ.

Pizza and beverages will be served, followed by a walk to the Eagle Theatre at 208 Vine St. to see the ground-breaking musical starring Broadway alum Krissy Fraelich and national recording artist Brian Bortnick at 8 p.m. "Next to Normal," which won three Tony awards in 2009 including Best Original Score, tells the story of a mother's struggle with bipolar disorder and its effects on her family.

Pre-registration is required, as the event is limited to the first 25 students to sign up. Please call 609-626-3840.

#