Galloway Township, NJ- The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey's Lake Fred Radio, station WLFR 91.7 FM, will celebrate its 25th Anniversary on Friday, October 16, 2009 from 7:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. in the Lakeside Center on the Galloway Township campus.

Lake Fred Radio is licensed to Stockton College and went on the air in 1984 and on the web in 2004. The radio station is part of the School of Arts and Humanities and is staffed by student directors Nick Maravelis and Kim Applewhite; community directors Bill Grohs and Paul Glaser; and faculty advisor Joe'l Ludovich. WLFR's varied programming accommodates a diverse base of listeners throughout the college community.

WLFR is very involved in the Stockton and southern New Jersey community. WLFR broadcasted a full season of Atlantic City Surf baseball games in the spring of 2008; the Stockton basketball games during the spring 2009 championship season; the 2009 Community of Scholars workshops; and the live New Jersey congressional debate in October 2008.
