

Office of Public Relations
Pomona, NJ 08240

Stockton Remembers the Victims of the Holocaust—“Unto Every Person There Is A Name”

Holocaust Program to take place at 7:30 P.M., Tuesday, April 29, 2008

For Immediate Release

Tuesday, April 15, 2008

Contact: Tim Kelly
Stockton Public Relations
(609) 652-4950

Galloway Twp., NJ – The Richard Stockton College of NJ’s Holocaust Resource Center is pleased to announce the Yom HaShoah Service for 2008: “Remembering the Victims of the Holocaust—Unto Every Person There Is A Name.” This free and open-to-the-public program will take place at Congregation Beth El on 500 N. Jerome Avenue in Margate, NJ on Tuesday, April 29, 2008, at 7:30 PM. The program will highlight local Holocaust survivors and will include a memorial service. Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis.

The keynote speaker will be Ms. Maud Peper Dahme, whose life story was featured in the film documentary, Hidden Child. Maud Dahme was born in The Netherlands, and she and her sister, Rita, spent part of the German occupation hiding as nieces of the Spronk family in Oldebroek. Her parents dropped her and her sister off at a neighbor’s house, and the resistance picked them up in the middle of the night.

Past-president of the NJ State Board of Education, Maud is a nationally respected leader in the field of education. Ms. Dahme is also immediate past-president and member of the Interstate Migrant Educational Council.

For questions and additional information, please call Stockton’s Holocaust Resource Center at (609) 652-4699

#