DISCLOSURE OF DIRECTORY INFORMATION

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) designates certain information related to students as “directory information” and gives the Stockton University (Stockton) the right to disclose such information to non-institutional persons or organizations outside of the college without obtaining permission from the student. In accordance with FERPA regulations, Stockton defines directory information as:

- Student name
- Program of study
- Class level
- Dates of attendance
- Degree awarded
- Awards, honors, and certifications
- Participation in officially recognized activities and sports,
- Weight and height of members of athletic teams.

Under the provisions of FERPA, students have the right to prevent Stockton from disclosing “directory information” to non-institutional persons or organizations.

PLEASE CHECK ONE:

I am requesting that Stockton:

- Prevent the disclosure of “directory information” as it relates to my educational records to non-institutional persons or organizations.
- Rescind my original request to prevent the disclosure of “directory information” and allow Stockton to release directory information to non-institutional persons or organization.

NOTE: This request does not apply to any proxies that you may have authorized through the Proxy Management system through goStockton.

My signature below acknowledges that I have read and understand the policy regarding the disclosure/non-disclosure of “directory information” as defined under FERPA. If you have indicated above to prevent the disclosure of directory information, we will do so until and unless you rescind the request by resubmitting this form. Stockton assumes no responsibility to contact you for subsequent permission to release directory information.
