Small Business Growth Success

On December 15th, Joan Joseph, representing the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs attended the Small Business Growth Success Awards Luncheon with Deborah Smarth, NJSBDC Network COO & Associate State Director and Brenda Hopper, NJSBDC Network CEO & State Director, ME where Ms. Hopper and Ms. Smarth presented success awards to State Regional winners including Stockton's Cardinal Bistro.

Congratulations to Cardinal Bistro on their success.

Internal Awards:

New Online Final Report System and Update

Effective immediately all internal awards applied for online now boast a "Manage Final Report" feature on the faculty member's online application system portal. Moving forward, simply log in to the system where you will see any past applications you have applied for and their status. Final reports can be completed by pressing the corresponding "Manage Final Report" button next to the funded application. *You will have up to 6 months to add to that report should additional activity take place after the initial reporting.

Also available, on applications 'In Progress' but past the deadline date, is a delete button allowing Faculty Members to delete the application if it is no longer needed for reference.

Call for Applications

Applications for presenters now being accepted for the 18th Annual Day of Scholarship. Oral, Poster and Pecha Kucha presentation slots available. Timeslots are limited, check the guidelines for tentative presentation times.

Applications will be chosen based on content and alignment with 2020 Initiatives and/or disciplines, aiming to include a variety of topics to appeal to an array of audience members.

Mark your calendars to present and/or attend this event highlighting colleagues' scholarly activity. As always, Faculty and Students are encouraged to attend! Please consider redirecting your classes, and/or offering extra credit as motivation for students to attend.

Look for additional details on our website.
