

The Psychology Program is pleased to present

The Stockton University Research in Psychology Conference

Friday, April 29, 2022
Campus Center Theater

Including:

Undergraduate Distinction Projects, Posters,
Scholarship Awards, Psi Chi National Honor Society
Induction Ceremony and More!

1.30 to 2.30PM Keynote: Your Accent's Weird! The Case for Supporting Youth Exposed to Bias-Based Victimization.

Dr. Freddie Pastrana Rivera, PhD, Assistant Professor, Clinical Psychology, University of Southern Mississippi

10.45 to 11.30AM Distinguished Psychology Alumni Award and Talk

Awarded to Dr. Matthew Strobel, Psy.D., Class of 2005, NJ Certified School Psychologist, Founder and Director of Navesink Psychological Services

Psychology, Where Can It Take You?

Questions: Please contact Dr. Helana Girgis, Conference Chair
helana.girgis@stockton.edu 609-652-4212 www.stockton.edu/psyc

Funded by the Psychology Program, PSYC Club, the School of Social & Behavioral Sciences, and Childhood Studies Minor.

Please note that we strongly encourage mask wearing inside the Campus Theater and will provide masks for those that need them.