Preparing for Your TWC Experience

Congrats on your acceptance to TWC! So, what's next? Your internship placement process will begin 2 to 3 months before the program starts.

Email

Once it's time to begin your internship placement process, you'll receive an email from your pre-arrival advisor with resources and information about next steps.

Activity

You'll be asked to complete an activity that will help you think about your career goals, along with what types of internships will help further those goals.

Sessions

You'll have two advising sessions with your pre-arrival advisor. The first will focus on your career goals and how they should be incorporated in the internship placement process and the second will focus on your resume and other application documents.

Applications

You'll connect with our network of 400+ employers in a variety of industries. Over the course of two weeks, you'll apply to a maximum of 7 open internship opportunities.

If you don't land an internship from your first round of applications, you can apply to 5 more opportunities.

Employers will reach out to you directly if they would like to schedule an interview. Interviews usually take place via phone or video call.

Depending on how your interviews ao. one or more employers may extend an internship offer. It's up to vou to decide whether to take the offer!

Tools you'll use:

- Canvas: Find resources to help you throughout your TWC experience.
- VMock: Optimize your application materials.
- GradLeaders: View and apply to open internship opportunities in TWC's network.

Other things to watch for:

- Scholarship notifications
- Academic course selection
- Housing selection (if applicable)
