

The Sara and Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center Presents

“Resilience, Resistance, and Defiance during the Holocaust”

Virtual Presentation via Zoom by
Dr. Michael Berenbaum

Consultant for the film Four Winters, Stockton’s Ida E King Distinguished Visiting Professor of Holocaust Studies - 1990-2000, Director of the Sigi Ziering Institute at American Jewish University, and internationally renowned scholar of the Holocaust.

This free and open to the public Zoom presentation with a question and answer session will focus on aspects of the Holocaust often not discussed and studied: resilience, resistance and defiance. Dr. Berenbaum will share information about the partisans who hid in the forests and resisted the forces who wanted to destroy them during WWII. The partisans saved many lives, both Jews and non-Jews.

Tuesday, September 12, 2023

7:00 PM - 8:00 PM

Zoom link: stockton.zoom.us/j/91361852698

Questions: 609-652-4699

1.5 Professional Development Hours (PDH) for NJ Educators

Group portrait of Soviet partisans who are members of the third unit of the Shish partisan detachment in the Molotov brigade, operating in the Leninsky district in the Pinsk region.

United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, courtesy of Belarusian State Museum of the History of the Great Patriotic War

 STOCKTON
UNIVERSITY
Master of Arts in
HOLOCAUST & GENOCIDE STUDIES

 STOCKTON
UNIVERSITY
SARA & SAM SCHOFFER
HOLOCAUST RESOURCE CENTER

Stockton is an Equal Opportunity Institution.