Galloway Township, NJ- The Sara and Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center at The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey is proud to announce the publication of a new Holocaust memoir. "In the Birches of Belarus: A Partisan's Revenge" written by Sidney Simon and a project of Stockton's Holocaust Resource Center, has recently been published by ComteQ Communications in Margate. The book design is credited to Gary Schenck of Stockton's Graphic Production department.

"In the Birch Woods of Belarus: A Partisan's Revenge" will give readers a new understanding of the partisans and their contributions. This memoir will captivate students and adults alike, showing the courage and love of a young man for his family and his religion. Sidney Simon is considered a role model not only for his bravery but also for his resilience.

In his memoir Sidney Simon not only tells readers about his life in Belarus before World War II, but also recounts his life as a partisan, avenging the murder of his brother. He also writes about fighting Germans while he was in the Soviet army.

Mr. Simon's memoir is especially timely because the film "Defiance" which is about Jewish partisans and stars Daniel Craig, is presently in theatres.

For more information about the book, please contact Stockton's Holocaust Resource Center at 609-652-4699 or e-mail maryann.mcloughlin@stockton.edu.
