Galloway Township, NJ - Stockton University's Kramer Hall instructional site will hold a Meditation Session on Monday, March 2.

The session will be led by Patricia Donahue, coordinator of Special Programs and Initiatives at Stockton's Career Center. Donahue has conducted a meditation session at Kramer Hall once before and regularly holds sessions at Stockton's Galloway Campus. Everyone is invited to attend the 45-minute session, which is designed to relax and relieve the stress of attendees.

The free public event will take place in Kramer Hall at 30 Front St. in downtown Hammonton from 5 – 5:45 p.m.
