Galloway, NJ – “It was the best of times, it was the worst of times...” Dickens’ novel about the French and British people during the Reign of Terror is brought to life in Benjamin Kingsland’s new adaptation. The National Players will present this classic drama at the Stockton Performing Arts Center, located on the main Galloway campus, on Saturday, March 5.

Show time is at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $32. Tickets may be ordered online at www.stockton.edu/pac or by calling the Box Office at (609) 652-9000. The Box Office is open Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and 90 minutes before the performance. For group sales, call (609) 652-4786.

Justice, sacrifice, class, love and duty are put to the test as leaders are beheaded and the people rebel. As blood flows in the streets, is anyone truly innocent?

Celebrating its 67th season, National Players is a unique ensemble bringing innovative theater to communities across the United States. Founded in 1949, National Players stimulates youthful imagination and critical thinking by presenting classic plays in contemporary and accessible ways.

National Players is the hallmark outreach program of Olney Theatre Center in Olney, Md.

The professional theatre company is a model for artistic collaboration and national education outreach, and embodies the Olney Theatre Center educational teaching method: to unleash the creative potential in our audiences and artists, and to stimulate individual empowerment.

The program exemplifies these goals by presenting self-sustained productions of Shakespeare and other classics to learners of all ages and in all environments.
