

STOCKTON

NEW JERSEY'S

DISTINCTIVE
Public College

40 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE

1971-2011

Stockton Spring Lecture Series Features Professor Paul Bartrop on March 1

Ida E. King Distinguished Visiting Scholar Gives Free Talk

For Immediate Release

Tuesday, February 28, 2012

Contact: Tim Kelly
Office of Public Relations
Galloway Township, NJ 08240
Tim.Kelly@stockton.edu
(609) 652-4950

Galloway Township, NJ- Dr. Paul Bartrop, the Ida E. King Distinguished Visiting Scholar of Holocaust Studies presents a free lecture "Indigenous Massacres or Genocide?" in Thursday, March 1, 2012 from 4:30 to 5:45 p.m. in Room 103 of the West Quad Building here.

Bartrop is a much-published scholar from Australia whose interests involve the Holocaust and other genocides of the 20th and 21st centuries.

The lecture is free and open to the public and sponsored by the Master of Arts in Holocaust and Genocide Studies and the School of Arts and Humanities at Stockton.

# #